All Good

VUE Fri 2 Nov 20:30 & Sun 4 Nov 12:30 & Tue 6 Nov 16:00 | £9/£7.50

Directed by Eva Trobisch | Germany | 2018 | 1hr 33min | (15) | [S]

Eva Trobisch’s stunning debut is a complex character study of a strong willed woman, Janne, anchored by a mesmerising central performance from Aenne Schwarz. Janne’s attitude is ‘if you don’t see any problems, you don’t have any’, even though her new boss’s brother-in-law sleeps with her against her will. The film adopts a gripping, first person perspective as she ploughs on with her life, keeping the incident under wraps though unforeseen problems beset her from every direction threatening all her relationships and her work life one after the other.

Arctic

VICTORIA Sat 10 Nov 12:45 & Sun 11 Nov 17:45 & Wed 14 Nov 15:30 | £9/£7.50

Directed by Joe Penna | Iceland | 2018 | 1hr 37min | (15)

Brazilian YouTube phenomenon Joe Penna makes his feature debut with a bold, almost dialogue-free drama about one man’s solo fight for survival in the Arctic. Mads Mikkelsen rises to the challenge of playing the film’s only lead role with an intense, captivating performance as a downed airman waiting for rescue while trying to stay alive in the most desperate circumstances. The stunning landscape of Iceland, cast as the film’s polar setting, features throughout. ‘Arctic is stark and visceral, stripped of any distracting elements, and for the survival movie purist, it’s an artful entry into the genre.’ (Vox)

Beautiful Boy

A beautifully-crafted mystery thriller based on a short story about obsessive love by Haruki Murakami, Burning starts out as a story about a deliveryman who cares for his girlfriend’s cat while she goes away to Africa. Then she returns with a stranger. ‘Once again, Lee has crafted a film of wondrous complexity and inscrutability. In this acclaimed comedy biopic, Melissa McCarthy stars as Lee Israel, best-selling celebrity biographer (and cat lover) who made her living in the ‘70s and ‘80s profiling the likes of Katharine Hepburn and Estee Lauder. When Lee is unable to get published after falling out of step with the marketplace, she turns her skills to deception, abetted by loyal friend Jack (Richard E. After her husband convinces her to ghost-write for him, Colette creates the loosely autobiographical Claudine novels which take Paris by storm. Caught in her husband’s shadow, Colette fights for creative ownership. ‘Wash Westmoreland’s Colette is exhilarating, funny, inspiring and (remember: corsets!) gorgeous.’ (The Guardian)

The Dawn Wall

VICTORIA Mon 12 Nov 20:15 | £9/£7.50

In the middle of Yosemite National Park towers El Capitan, a huge block of granite whose smoothest side, the Dawn Wall, is said to be the most difficult rock climb in the world. Tommy Caldwell didn’t see inhospitable terrain but rather a puzzle almost a kilometre tall: in The Dawn Wall we follow him and Kevin Jorgeson on their historic ascent to the summit. ‘While The Dawn Wall brings you up close to the miraculous feat of Caldwell and Jorgeson, the backstory (particularly of Caldwell) is just as amazing.’ (Film Threat)

A subtly original and surprisingly uplifting film about death, Die Tomorrow splices a series of dramatic vignettes about the last days of people’s lives with vox pop interviews and thought provoking facts about our mortality. Death often comes unexpectedly - what happens the day before is usually ordinary, featuring all the little things that make life worth living. In Bangkok, friends celebrate their graduation, siblings meet again, a couple separates, an actress is waiting to be called on set... A playful and philosophical reflection on the fate and the ephemerality of life.

A highly distinctive and offbeat character drama set in a giant German supermarket with elegant, swooping cinematography along the aisles of the title. Franz Rogowski (Love Steaks) plays the shy and reclusive Christian, a new employee who is shown the ropes by gruff but avuncular veteran Bruno from the beverage aisle. He soon falls for ‘Sweets’ – Marion (Sandra Hüller) though it seems his feelings will remain unrequited. Never quite what it seems, In the Aisles transcends to unexpected heights from its apparently mundane setting.

The Image Book

HYDE PARK Mon 5 Nov 18:00 | £9/£7.50

Directed by Jean-Luc Godard | France, Switzerland | 2018 | 1hr 24min | (15) | [S]

The Image Book is riddled with ideas, madness, media, the failures of cinema and revolution - a dense jungle of multiple texts and degraded images. The thesis sometimes breaks down, wheezing like its narrator mastermind but often it roils along like a raging storm of thought, most notably on the West’s understanding of Arab history. This feels close to a final word from one of the great modern artists, observing this mad planet through long lenses. When screened in public, Jean-Luc Godard’s latest becomes a multisensory event, to be felt as much as to be endlessly pondered.

Maggie Gyllenhaal is quietly chilling in this story of a kindergarten teacher who becomes obsessed when one of her students starts to display a gift for poetry. At first it seems she is trying to nurture his talent, but soon it becomes apparent she wants to take credit for this child prodigy. Sara Colangelo’s second film after her debut Little Accidents is a powerful take on frustrated ambition and trying to find fulfilment through another’s talent. ‘The Kindergarten Teacher is probably the only movie about poetry with an ending as tense as any thriller.’ (The Guardian)

A raw and uncompromising debut from Reinaldo Marcus Green, Monsters and Men explores the aftermath of an unarmed black man’s shooting by police in a powerful indictment of modern American society. The film eschews easy answers for a nuanced and complex examination of a generation torn apart by racial divides and an imbalance of power that favours only a small percentage of the population. ‘A compelling study of racial turmoil to fit our confused times... the movie not only illustrates the power of modern activism; in its final moments, it becomes such an act itself.’ (Indiewire)

Directed by Steve McQueen | UK, USA | 2018 | 2hr 8min | (15) | [S]

For his much-anticipated fourth feature after Hunger, Shame and 12 Years of Slave, Steve McQueen takes a different direction with white-knuckle heist thriller Widows. Co-written by Gone Girl creator Gillian Flynn – and for those who may remember, based on Lynda La Plante’s ‘80s ITV series – Widows is the story of four women who take fate into their own hands when faced with a ruinous debt left over after the deaths of their criminal husbands. ‘This is precision entertainment, a crackling, pulse-pounding heist movie with a sterling cast, a whip-smart script, and undeniable social resonance.’ (The Film Stage)

Beautiful Things
ALBERT Sat 3 Nov 20:15 & Sun 4 Nov 20:15 & Mon 5 Nov 18:15 | £7/£6
Directed by Giorgio Ferrero, Federico Biasin | Italy, Switzerland, USA | 2017 | 1hr 35min | (15) | [S]

A spectacular and symphonic journey into our obsessive consumption, Beautiful Things is a hybrid film structured in four parts: Oil, Cargo, Measure and Ash. The film describes the hidden mechanical liturgy within remote locations where borderline men work in complete isolation without any interference from the outside world. These men trigger, unconsciously, the long chain of creation, transport, commercialization and destruction of the objects feeding our bulimic lifestyle. They are monks inside temples of steel and concrete, repeating the same liturgy every day. And we don’t even know they exist.

Directed by Jim Finn | UK, USA | 2018 | 1hr 30min | (12A)

Cult mockumentary auteur Jim Finn (Interkosmos, The Juche Idea) returns with an epistolary, musical reimagining of Wuthering Heights by Branwell—the tubercular, alcoholic and opium-addicted brother of Emily Brontë. Assembled from early cinema style fragments, the story is reimagined as a musical memoir based on Branwell’s life after realising that he was the model for the alcoholic Hindley Earnshaw character. Following the screening Jim Finn will run a tabletop role-playing game in front of the audience based on Branwell’s altered reality version of his sister’s novel.

Directed by Christian Frei, Maxim Arbugaev | Switzerland, China... | 2018 | 1hr 10min | (12A) | [S]

A jawdropping documentary about a bizarre 21st Century subculture arising from the ongoing revolution in genetics. On the remote New Siberian Islands in the Arctic Ocean, hunters are searching for the tusks of extinct mammoths. There is a gold rush fever in the air. The price for white gold has never been so high. The thawing permafrost not only releases precious ivory. The tusk hunters find a surprisingly well-preserved mammoth carcass. Such finds are magnets for high-tech genetic scientists who want to bring the extinct woolly mammoth back to life à la Jurassic Park.
The Goodiepal Equation

ALBERT Sat 10 Nov 18:30 | £7/£6
Directed by Sami Sänpäkkilä | Finland, Denmark | 2018 | 1hr 10min | (15) | [S]

Goodiepal is a puckish, enigmatic Danish artist and musician, a notorious and controversial figure in his home country and the perfect subject for a documentary. Sami Sänpäkkilä’s film follows his subject over several years and various reinventions, from the release of a beautifully designed record with a free bank note and no music on it, to inscrutable performance lectures and epic journeys on a self-built bicycle that he uses to power his shows. He gravitates from the fringes of society to an exhibition for the National Museum of Denmark comprising all his material possessions.

The Image You Missed

Directed by Donal Foreman | Ireland, UK, USA, France | 2018 | 1hr 14min | (15)

Drawing on over 30 years of unique and never-seen-before imagery, The Image You Missed is a documentary essay film that weaves together a history of the Northern Irish Troubles with the story of a son's search for his father. In the process, the film creates a candid encounter between two filmmakers born into different political moments, revealing their contrasting experiences of Irish nationalism, the role of images in social struggle, and the competing claims of personal and political responsibility.

Industrial Accident: The Story of Wax Trax! Records

BELGRAVE Sat 3 Nov 16:30 | £7/£6
Directed by Julia Nash | Belgium, USA, Canada, Germany | 2017 | 1hr 35min | (15)

From humble beginnings in the bible belt to Chicago, Illinois, Jim Nash and Dannie Flesher built one of the most influential American independent record labels: Wax Trax! which would evolve into a record store and music label like no other. The label became the nexus of the new wave, punk rock and industrial music scenes, and was America’s preeminent industrial label of the 1980s and ‘90s, releasing records by Ministry, Nine Inch Nails, COIL, Chris & Cosey and many more. This is a remarkable tale of two men’s music obsession and the creation and crumble of their personal and professional empires.

A renowned sound engineer and biologist, Marc Namblard lives with his family on the edge of a forest in the Vosges mountains in France. During the day (and sometimes at night), Namblard ventures deep into the forest, audio equipment in tow, to capture sounds no one’s heard before: a bee rubbing its legs together, the drumbeat of marching ants, the songs of nocturnal animals, ice cracking beneath a frozen lake. A magical and beguiling documentary that asks us to reconsider how we see – and hear – our world, In The Stillness of Sounds offers a wondrous appreciation of nature’s ecosystem.

Island of the Hungry Ghosts
HYDE PARK Fri 9 Nov 18:00 | VICTORIA Thu 15 Nov 17:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Gabrielle Brady | Germany, UK, Australia | 2018 | 1hr 34min | (15)

This extraordinary first feature by Gabrielle Brady won Best Documentary at Tribeca Film Festival. It follows trauma counsellor Poh Lin, as she attempts to support refugees detained in a high-security detention facility, run by the Australian Government on Christmas Island. In striking contrast to the intimate therapy sessions of detainees, the film beautifully captures the annual migration of the forty million land crabs that make an epic odyssey from the island’s jungle to its rugged coastline. A poetic masterpiece that weaves together the island’s violent past and its inescapable present.
King Skate

VUE Sat 3 Nov 16:00 | HYDE PARK Sat 10 Nov 13:45 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Simon Safránek | Czech Republic | 2018 | 1hr 20min | (15) | [S]

Communist era Czechoslovakia and skateboarding might not seem the most likely union of subjects for a documentary, but director Simon Safránek ditches dour Eastern Bloc clichés in his fascinating story of restricted youth discovering and embracing skate culture. Assembled from hours of 8mm footage shot in the ’70s and ’80s, King Skate features Safránek and his skateboarding friends as they generate a blast of freedom amid often grim surroundings. With a terrific soundtrack – including the likes of Devo and the Sex Pistols – King Skate celebrates the sights and sounds of youthful rebellion.

As leader of the experiment, Genovés had hoped to be able to report on his human guinea pigs but did not plan on the group despising him and plotting his murder. More than forty years later, the surviving members tell the hidden story behind ‘one of the strangest group experiments of all time’.

A growing grassroots campaign has been fighting to bring them to justice ever since.

The State Against Mandela
EVERYMAN Mon 5 Nov 18:15 & Wed 7 Nov 14:15 & Sun 11 Nov 11:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Nicolas Champeaux, Gilles Porte | France | 2018 | 1hr 45min | (15) | [S]

2018 marks the centenary of Nelson Mandela’s birth. There is no film footage of his notorious trial in 1963-4 but The State Against Mandela uses beautifully designed sequences of animation to bring the recently recovered archival audio recordings to life. There were also eight others who, like him, faced the death sentence and were subjected to pitiless cross-examinations. They all stood firm and turned the tables on the state: South Africa’s apartheid regime was in the dock and this inventive and compelling film transport us back into the thick of the courtroom battles, shedding new light on a familiar story.

Peter Nyaga, a charismatic preacher, has already found his answer, but it means he cannot waste even a train ride in spreading his gospel. And Maasai elder Isaya embarks on a multi-day trek home, joined by his grandson William, who is more interested in pursuing his career as a performer in the city than in carrying on the ancient traditions of his people. Jeroen van Velzen’s ruminative, captivating road movie follows three people finding their way on a train journey across Tanzania.

Walden
EVERYMAN Wed 7 Nov 18:45 & Fri 9 Nov 20:45 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Daniel Zimmermann | Austria, Switzerland | 2018 | 1hr 46min | (12) | [S]

Soothing birdsong filters through dense forest vegetation only to be drowned out by the cataclysmic roar of buzzing chainsaws. Thus begins a documentary comprising thirteen 360° panning shots or tableaux, celebrating both Henry David Thoreau’s similarly titled work, in praise of nature and self-sufficiency, and the German word wald meaning forest. As soon as we align our breathing with the slow rhythm of the shots a surprising odyssey opens out before us of the paradoxical migration of wood from Austrian forests to a secret, far-off destination.
Welcome To Sodom + Bordalo II: A Life of Waste
EVERYMAN Mon 5 Nov 20:30 & Wed 7 Nov 12:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Christian Krönes, Florian Weigensamer | Austria | 2018 | 1hr 30min + 10min | (15) | [S]

Agbogbloshie in Ghana is the largest electronic waste dump in the world. About 6000 women, men and children live and work here. They call it “Sodom”. Every year about 250,000 tons of sorted-out computers, smartphones, air-condition tanks and other devices from a far away electrified and digitalized world end up here. Welcome to Sodom (which is the title of a rap song in the film) places us right in the middle of the location’s dark heart. Screening with Bordalo II, a portrait of Portuguese street artist Arthur Bordalo who aims to highlight the extent of our wastefulness and the impact it has on our environment through his “Trach Animals” sculptures.

What is Democracy?
HYDE PARK Fri 2 Nov 13:00 & Sat 3 Nov 14:15 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Astra Taylor | Canada | 2018 | 1hr 57min | (15)

Director Astra Taylor’s idiosyncratic, philosophical journey spans millennia and continents: from ancient Athens’ groundbreaking experiment in self-government to capitalism’s roots in medieval Italy; from modern-day Greece grappling with financial collapse and a mounting refugee crisis to the United States reckoning with its racist past and the growing gap between rich and poor. This urgent film connects the past and the present, the emotional and the intellectual, the personal and the political, in order to provoke and inspire. If we want to live in democracy, we must first ask what the word even means.

An epic piece of ‘Soviet Kitsch’, the Dead Mountaineer’s Hotel – at one point Estonia’s only example of genre cinema – is a wonderfully crazy and very 70s attempt at a sci-fi movie, based on the novel by Arkady and Boris Strugatsky (Roadside Picnic). When a policeman gets stuck in a hotel in the Alps after an avalanche cuts it off from the outside world, he soon discovers that everything is not as it seems. With some brilliant touches – including Sven Grünberg’s evocative electronic score – this is a unique and bizarre genre curiosity.

Directed by Rainer Sarnet | Estonia, Netherlands, Poland | 2017 | 1hr 55min | (18) | [S]

The dark myths and legends of Pagan Estonia are given free reign in Rainer Sarnet’s evocative tale of a medieval village which dabbles in witchcraft to survive the long winter. With some stunning black and white cinematography from Mart Taniel, this is a deliciously dark melding of historical treatise and bleak fairy tale that is spotted with pitch-black humour. A remarkable cinematic experience that delves into a national psyche in which the black nights at least give hope for brighter days to come. ‘A bone-chilling, hallucinatory tour de force.’ (Village Voice)

VICTORIA Thu 1 Nov 21:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Boots Riley | USA | 1hr 51min | (Cert tbc)

Politically supercharged satire Sorry to Bother by outspoken rapper turned filmmaker Boots Riley is a must-see at LIFF 2018. Skewering its targets in every direction from fat cat capitalists to racist institutions, the story follows Cassius Green (the brilliant Lakeith Stanfield) who gets a new job at a call centre and is coached into immediate success by a veteran colleague (Danny Glover), inciting him to ‘use his white voice’. Riley escalates the satire from there, ricocheting from comic vignettes to confrontational agitprop to demented fantasy, in a wildly inventive, hugely entertaining cinematic ride.

Luca Guadagnino (Call Me By Your Name, LIFF 2017) takes Argento’s brash horror masterpiece and reimagines it, bringing new depth to the story while honouring the original.

Into this light soupy story many satirical ingredients are mixed: Tampopo’s buffet of deliciousness riffs on Japanese corporate culture, internationalism, domestic relations, cinema and always sex. One of the best Japanese films of the 1980s, Tampopo is impossible to watch without dreaming of hearty post-movie eats.

12 Angry Men  Sidney Lumet: Time Frames Master

HYDE PARK Mon 5 Nov 15:30 & Tue 6 Nov 14:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Sidney Lumet | USA | 1957 | 1hr 36min | (U)

At the close of a murder trial, the life of the teenage hispanic suspect is in the hands of the 12 white jurors. With apparently damning evidence lined up against the boy, a preliminary vote shows only one doubtful juror standing against eleven who would have him hanged. 90 tense, sweaty minutes ensue in which prejudices are confronted, moralities are revealed, and the vagaries of justice are rigorously exposed. A great ensemble film - every player from Henry Fonda’s upstanding doubter to Lee J. Cobb’s tetchy racist helps shape a fully absorbing whole.

25 Watts  Time Frames Matinees

EVERYMAN Mon 5 Nov 14:30 & Tue 6 Nov 16:45 | £7/£6
Directed by Juan Pablo Rebella and Pablo Stoll | Uruguay | 2001 | 1hr 32min | (15) | [S]

A rare chance to see this major work of Uruguayan cinema. Co-directed by Juan Pablo Rebella and Pablo Stoll, this low-budget, laid-back slacker comedy follows the misadventures of three teenage friends on one lazy summer’s day in Montevideo. Leche, Javi, and Seba are still up from the night before, drifting around town, drinking beer and avoiding responsibility. Echoing the films of Richard Linklater, Kevin Smith and early Jim Jarmusch, Rebella and Stoll combine these influences to create a unique portrait of urban life in Uruguay. With style and humour, 25 Watts perfectly captures the boredom of youth.

After Hours  Time Frames Night Shifts

HYDE PARK Sat 10 Nov 23:00 & Mon 12 Nov 12:30 | £7/£6
Directed by Martin Scorsese | USA | 1985 | 1hr 37min | (15) | 35mm

Over one long wild night, meek computer programmer Paul attempts endlessly to go home but is thwarted at each and every attempt by a series of macabre coincidences and mishaps. Paul’s evening starts out promisingly - a possible date is on the cards. But then he loses his taxi fare en-route, a fateful event that is only the first in a series of bizarre twists. Martin Scorsese’s often-overlooked cult comedy is a witty, deftly-spun yarn of nefarious New York paranoia, and trippy insight into NYC’s tribal 1980s headspace. For night-owls everywhere.
American Graffiti Time Frames Matinees
BELGRAVE Sun 4 Nov 14:00 | £5
Directed by George Lucas | USA | 1973 | 1hr 50min | (12A)

On the cusp of independence, several high school friends in Modesto, California spend the final night of their 1962 summer vacation around the strip mall - getting together, breaking up, having fun. George Lucas’ second feature cuts nimbly between several criss-crossing vignettes as the friends spread out, re-group and intersect. With its attractive veneer of pop music, car culture and lives on the up, American Graffiti is full of the optimistic present. It’s exhilarating cinema that made careers of many of its stars, and it all points at tantalising futures.

Before Sunrise Time Frames Breakfast Screening
HYDE PARK Sat 3 Nov 09:30 | £7/£6
Directed by Richard Linklater | Austria, Switzerland, USA | 1995 | 1hr 41min | (15)

The start of Richard Linklater’s Before trilogy, Before Sunrise is a romantic classic, effortlessly evoking the transience of young love. The film captures a few hours when two strangers, Jesse and Celine (Ethan Hawke and Julie Delpy), meet by chance and spend an evening wandering the streets of Vienna. This highlight of 90s indie cinema is beautifully realised, and one of Linklater’s first experiments with time, contrasting the knowledge that it may be the only night they’ll share together, with the feeling they have all the time in the world.

The Birthday Party Time Frames by William Friedkin
HYDE PARK Mon 12 Nov 14:30 | £7/£6
Directed by William Friedkin | UK | 1968 | 2hr 3min | (15)

Before he attained legendary status as the director of French Connection and The Exorcist, William Friedkin directed a fervent screen version of Harold Pinter’s queasy, kitchen sink-gothic chamber piece, The Birthday Party. Set entirely in a scuzzy seaside boarding house through 24 hours and featuring incredible performances by Robert Shaw, Patrick Magee and Dandy Nichols, Friedkin escalates the power dynamics of his characters to fever pitch, throwing in a few unusual, cinematic touches that elevate the enterprise above filmed theatre. The result is a strange and nightmarish cult classic.

During a violent attack, Alice White (Anny Ondra) kills a man in self-defence, and is blackmailed by a witness to the killing. Displaying much of the developing ‘Hitchcockian’ style, this skillful thriller features many memorable sequences, including a stunning final chase over the British Library Reading Room dome.

HYDE PARK Tue 13 Nov 15:00 | £7/£6

Directed by William Friedkin | USA | 1970 | 1hr 55min | (15)

William Friedkin’s explosive screen adaptation of Mart Cowley’s off-broadway hit is a landmark in queer cinema, the first major American feature to revolve entirely around gay characters full of impassioned performances and cutting dialogue. Set over a single day, the story builds to a birthday party hosted by Michael in which every guest is a gay man until a surprise visit from his straitlaced old college buddy Alan throws everything into disarray. Attempts at deception fall apart through a series of party games and bitter confrontations that have devastating consequences.

VICTORIA Mon 12 Nov 13:00 | FREE

Charlie Chaplin | USA | One A.M. (1916, 26min) + Pay Day (1922, 28min) | (U)

An hour of classic Charlie Chaplin with live organ accompaniment by Jonathan Hope. Using concise time-frames to hilarious effect, these two shorts feature Chaplin playing the comedy drunk, a role he’d perfected on the stages of the English music hall. In One A.M., Chaplin’s solo performance is a tour-de-force of comic ingenuity, as he battles a series of household obstacles on returning home from a night of debauchery. In Pay Day, Chaplin’s last two-reel comedy before he moved full-time to features, he plays a construction worker determined to enjoy his wages (whilst evading the watchful eye of his wife).
Cleo from 5 to 7 Time Frames Night Matinees

HYDE PARK Mon 12 Nov 17:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Agnès Varda | France | 1952 | 1hr 30min | (PG) | [S] | 35mm

An exemplary film of the Nouvelle Vague, Agnès Varda’s radical second feature is an innovative exploration of female identity set against the backdrop of a vibrant sixties Paris. The film chronicles two hours in the life of pop singer Cléo (an iconic performance by Corrine Marchand), as she anxiously awaits the test results of a biopsy. Aimlessly roaming the Parisian streets, she encounters several friends and strangers, including a soldier on leave from the Algerian war. Blending vérité and melodrama, Varda creates an arresting portrait of one woman’s inner journey as she confronts mortality.

VUE Sun 4 Nov 16:30 | £7/£6
Directed by Kevin Smith | USA | 1994 | 1hr 32min | (15)

Called in to work on his day off, twentysomething Dante spends his day at the Quick Stop convenience store. Next door is his best friend Randall, who is supposed to be minding the video shop but is much more interested in just hanging out and talking trash. As mostly unwelcome customers come and go, our slacker heroes riff hilariously on topics ranging from sexual mores, to the nature of love, to Return of the Jedi... Light on plot yet bursting with energetic pottymouth wit, Clerks is the first and still the best of Kevin Smith’s ‘views askew’.

Daughters of the Dust Time Frames Matinees

HYDE PARK Tue 13 Nov 12:30 & Wed 14 Nov 15:15 | £7/£6
Directed by Julie Dash | UK, USA | 1991 | 1hr 52min | (12A)

A film of breathtaking beauty, this visionary first feature directed and written by Julie Dash is a poetic portrait of black womanhood and a landmark American independent cinema. Set at the turn of the century, the story revolves around the women of a Gullah family (descendants of freed slaves), as they prepare to migrate from their Sea Island home to the American mainland, leaving their land and legacy behind. With sensuous cinematography and a sweeping score, Dash has created a rich and vital portrait of African American history.
Dazed and Confused Time Frames Matinees

BELGRAVE Sun 4 Nov 11:30 | £5
Directed by Richard Linklater | USA | 1993 | 1hr 42min | (15)

Richard Linklater’s second feature is a modern classic and surely one of the best high school movies ever made. Set over one intense day and night on the first day of a new school year, a fantastic young ensemble cast portrays seniors and freshmen, sports stars and stoners, straight A-students and dropouts, across multiple, immersive storylines. Many would go on to stardom like Ben Affleck and Matthew McConaughey. The film conveys a powerful sense of watershed moments, transforming young lives and opening up to the joys, fears and confusion of adult life.

The Docks of New York + Live Music Time Frames Finale

HYDE PARK Wed 14 Nov 18:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Josef von Sternberg | USA | 1928 | 1hr 16min | (U)

Josef Von Sternberg’s silent masterpiece is a vivid and sensual melodrama set in the New York docklands in the years before prohibition. George Bancroft plays roughneck coal stoker Bill Roberts who gets into trouble during a brief shore leave when he falls for a wise and weary dance-hall girl, Mae, played by Betty Compson. Despite the conventions of melodrama, the intense love story is brought to life with naturalistic flair that puts it well ahead of its time and the expressionist cinematography prefigures the film noir of the 40s. Featuring live accompaniment by pianist Jonathan Best.

Dog Day Afternoon Sidney Lumet: Time Frames Master

VICTORIA Thu 8 Nov 13:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Sidney Lumet | USA | 1975 | 2hr 5min | (18)

Sidney Lumet balances suspense, violence and humour in a piercing portrait of one man’s devastating fall based on real-life events. Al Pacino is heartbreakingly real as smart if self-destructive Sonny whose plan to rob the local bank to fund his male lover’s sex change goes absurdly, publicly wrong. Accompanied only by his far from ideal accomplice, Sal, Sonny resorts to kidnapping some of the bank’s employees when he realises all the money had been removed before his arrival. As the heist attracts a media circus as well as the police, their notoriety grows and chances for survival shrink.
Do the Right Thing  Time Frames Matinees

VICTORIA Wed 7 Nov 13:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Spike Lee | USA | 1989 | 2hr | (15)

Spike Lee’s powerful look at race in America was the most controversial and talked about film of 1989. It’s the hottest day of the year in the Bedford-Stuyvesant neighbourhood of Brooklyn, and as the heat rises, racial tensions simmer to boiling point. Mookie (Spike Lee) delivers pizzas for Sal (Danny Aiello), who runs a restaurant with his sons. Hostility builds when pizzeria regular Buggin’ Out confronts Sal about his ‘Wall of Fame’ that only includes white actors. As the hot summer’s day progresses and frictions intensify, arguments soon escalate to violence.

Dredd  Time Frames Action!

VICTORIA Thu 8 Nov 18:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Pete Travis | UK, South Africa | 2012 | 1hr 35mins | (18)

I AM THE LAW! Forget about ‘that’ Stallone film and immerse yourself in the work that got the classic British comic character Judge Dredd right. With its almost real time setting, Dredd is not only a brilliantly-conceived example of genre cinema, it’s also a great dystopian sci-fi realised in a uniquely British style. While it had a muted release, Dredd, written and produced by Alex Garland (Ex Machina / Annihilation), went on to become a cult favourite. During LIFF 2018 you can experience it in the dramatic setting of Leeds Town Hall.

During One Night  Time Frames Night Shifts

HYDE PARK Thu 8 Nov 16:00 & Fri 9 Nov 16:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Sidney J. Furie | UK | 1960 | 1hr 25min | (15) | 35mm

Directed by Canadian film-maker Sidney J. Furie, this forgotten work of the British New Wave is a frank and sensitive look at sexual anxiety and inexperience. Don Borisenko (hailed as the Canadian James Dean) plays David, a young US fighter pilot stationed in England during World War II. When his friend Mike suffers anemasculating injury, and subsequently commits suicide, David is plunged into psychological turmoil, afraid to die before he loses his virginity. This bold and compassionate study of wounded masculinity, male impotency and the trauma of war, deserves to be far better known.
The Ear Time Frames Night Shifts

ALBERT Mon 5 Nov 20:15 | £7/£6
Directed by Karel Kachyna | Czechoslovakia | 1970 | 1hr 34min | (12) | [S]

Karel Kachyna’s unforgettable, incendiary drama was banned by Czech authorities immediately after its release in 1970 as a searing indictment of life under a totalitarian regime. The film uses flashbacks to interrogate a single night in the life of high ranking bureaucrat Ludvik, who returns home with his wife after an awkward reception where it becomes clear that other officials have been arrested. The couple find their house is bugged and with a deteriorating relationship already fraying the edges, spend a long, sleepless night tearing the wires from the walls and strips off each other.

Fail-Safe Sidney Lumet: Time Frames Master

VICTORIA Thu 8 Nov 15:30 | £7/£6
Directed by Sidney Lumet | USA | 1964 | 1hr 52min | (PG)

An unbearably tense psychological thriller from Hollywood master Sidney Lumet, Fail Safe is similar in its premise to its famous Cold War contemporary Dr Strangelove, but played deadly straight. Taking place over 24 hours and making the most of its against the clock suspense, the American President (in a carefully measured performance by Henry Fonda) tries to call back a squadron of bombers, deployed to destroy Moscow because of a computer error. But their sophisticated fail-safe system prevents him from aborting the attack and he’s left with the impossible task of convincing the Soviets not to retaliate.

The Fire Within Time Frames Matinees

VICTORIA Fri 2 Nov 13:30 | £7/£6
Louis Malle | France | 1963 | 1hr 44min | (12) | [S]

The haunting and stylish The Fire Within is Louis Malle’s darkest, most incendiary film, tracing the last day in the life of writer Alain Leroy, a self destructive writer who decides to kill himself. Maurice Ronet is masterful as Leroy, using his last 24 hours to track down wayward friends, whose superficial lifestyles give stark contrast to his dark intents, both of which are captured beautifully in austere, high contrast black and white cinematography. Louis Malle himself called The Fire Within ‘the first of his films he was completely happy with’ and it’s matured beautifully into a classic of 60s French cinema.
The Guilty New Time Frames

VICTORIA Fri 2 Nov 18:15 & Mon 5 Nov 20:30 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Gustav Möller | Denmark | 2018 | 1hr 25min | (15) | [S]

In the claustrophobic confines of an Emergency Services call centre, nervous cop Asger begins his shift by dispatching judgemental advice to callers. When a woman calls from a car in which she’s confined, Asger snaps to attention: this conversation is far more urgent - and ultimately more intriguing - than the rest. Though The Guilty barely moves from its single office location, it paints a detailed picture that evolved in real time, in the imagination. A taut, tough, twisty thriller and a masterclass in minimal performance, The Guilty’s simple premise belies a complex, knotty psyche-drama.

Happy New Year, Colin Burstead. New Time Frames

HYDE PARK Fri 2 Nov 20:30 | VUE Tue 6 Nov 14:00 & Wed 7 Nov 18:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Ben Wheatley | UK | 2018 | 1hr 35min | (15)

Ben Wheatley shows his chops as Britain’s most versatile director, following heist thriller Free Fire with this penetrating dysfunctional family drama. The film was shot quickly under the radar earlier in the year and the style suits the subject, following an increasingly fractious New Year’s party at a stately home, organised by the titular Colin for his extended family and derailed by a surprise appearance from his estranged brother David. It bristles with cutting lines and edgy performances from an outstanding ensemble cast including Neil Maskell, Sam Riley, Hayley Squires, and Doon Mackichan.

It Always Rains on Sunday + Gai Dimanche Time Frames Matinees

HYDE PARK Sun 4 Nov 15:45 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Robert Hamer | UK | 1947 | 1hr 27min | (PG)

Directed by Robert Hamer for Ealing Studios, It Always Rains on Sunday is a gem of post-war British cinema. This tense domestic noir follows Bethnal Green housewife Rose Sandigate through one wet Sunday as her old flame unexpectedly appears seeking help after escaping from prison. A forerunner to kitchen sink dramas of the 1960s, this slice of life in the East End features an outstanding performance from Googie Withers as a woman trapped in stifling domesticity. This film screens as part of an afternoon of ‘Sunday’ films at the Hyde Park Picture House.
Knife in the Water Time Frames Matinees
HYDE PARK Thu 8 Nov 12:00 & Fri 9 Nov 14:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Roman Polanski | Poland | 1962 | 1hr 34min | (PG) | [S] | 35mm

Roman Polanski burst onto the cinema scene with his debut feature Knife in the Water, a fully formed demonstration of his signature style of paranoid psychological drama, exploring jealousy and desire with taut direction and slow building tension constantly threatening to reach breaking point. A married couple go on a yachting weekend, picking up an attractive young hitch-hiker on the way. Competition builds between the two men as they vie for the attentions of the alluring young wife and innocent games gradually escalate into deadly confrontations.

La Haine Time Frames Matinees
VICTORIA Fri 2 Nov 16:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Mathieu Kassovitz | France | 1995 | 1hr 38min | (15) | [S]

Three friends from a Parisian ghetto spend a day and night together in the aftermath of a riot. Vinz is a vengeful skinhead who has acquired a police firearm. Hubert is a boxer who hopes for a better life. Saïd occupies the middle ground between his pals’ responses to their mutual plight - all three are on the receiving end of institutionalised racism. Travelling from the blighted out suburbs to the central city and back again, La Haine describes multicultural Paris of 1995 with a massive amount of vigour, wit, anger and passion.

La Notte Time Frames Night Shifts
VICTORIA Mon 5 Nov 15:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Michelangelo Antonioni | France | 1961 | 1hr 59min | (12) | [S]

Michelangelo Antonioni’s devastating portrait of a deteriorating marriage, set against the desolate cityscape of Milan. Sitting between L’Aventura and L’Eclisse in Antonioni’s trilogy on bourgeois alienation, La Notte chronicles a day and night in the life of unhappy couple Giovanni and Lidia, played by giants of cinema Marcello Mastroianni and Jeanne Moreau. Drifting through the evening, they visit a dying friend in hospital, attend a book launch, and end up at a lavish party where Giovanni attempts to seduce the host’s daughter (Monica Vitti). La Notte is a haunting study of romantic ennui.
Le Mans Time Frames Action!

VICTORIA Mon 12 Nov 18:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Lee H. Katzin | USA | 1971 | 1hr 44min | (PG)

A heads up on the background story in Le Mans, it’s not great, but it’s the remarkable front and centre racing action that is the main attraction and you’ll feel all the revs roaring inside the concert hall setting of Leeds Town Hall. 24 Hours of Le Mans is the world’s most famous endurance race and Steve McQueen’s passion project went to extraordinary lengths to bring all the thrills and spills of the experience to the big screen. Over 1 million feet of racing footage was captured by 20 camera crews including breathtaking in-car shots.

Magnolia Time Frames Matinees

HYDE PARK Thu 15 Nov 14:00 | £9/£7.50
Directed by Paul Thomas Anderson | USA | 1999 | 3hr 8min | (18) | 35mm

A sprawling, ambitious epic of intersecting lives, coincidence, love and the search for meaning on a single day in the San Fernando Valley. The to-die-for ensemble cast features Philip Seymour Hoffman as a careworn nurse, Julianne Moore as a frustrated trophy wife, John C. Reilly as a dim-bulb cop, and most memorably Tom Cruise as a monstrous misogynist guru. An operatic quality pervades events, which are seemingly separate yet in fact connected by Paul Thomas Anderson’s intricate screenplay. Magnolia is a gloriously over-reaching popular art movie that frequently breaks through into transcendance.

Miracle Mile Time Frames Action!

HYDE PARK Sat 3 Nov 22:30 | £7/£6
Directed by Steve De Jarnatt | USA | 1988 | 1hr 27min | (15)

Harry (Anthony Edwards of Top Gun and ER fame) meets and falls in love with a young woman at the La Brea Tar Pits in LA. After missing a date he tries to call her but accidentally intercepts a clandestine phone call, telling him that a nuclear war has started. Harry has 70 minutes to find his girlfriend and escape LA before the missiles hit. Steve De Jarnatt’s cult post-apocalyptic drama celebrates its 30th anniversary this year and its bleak cold-war message, seemingly improbable for the last two decades, suddenly feels relevant again.
Night Train  Time Frames Night Shifts
HYDE PARK Wed 7 Nov 15:30 & Thu 8 Nov 14:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Jerzy Kawalerowicz | Poland | 1959 | 1hr 39min | (12) | [S]

An underrated classic and one of the greatest Polish films of all time, Night Train takes place entirely in a single compartment on a crowded overnight train. Beginning like a Hitchcock thriller hinting at the possibility that someone in the carriage is a killer on the run, the film develops into a nuanced character study of the different passengers on board, building towards an complex and symbolic conclusion. A terrific cast includes Zbigniew Cybulski (the ‘Polish James Dean’) and Leon Niemczyk (Knife in the Water), and composer Andrzej Trzaskowski contributes an atmospheric jazz score.

Directed by Jim Jarmusch | France, UK, Germany, USA, Japan | 1991 | 2hr 9min | (15)

Night on Earth was Jim Jarmusch’s fifth feature, made in 1991 in his trademark deadpan style, a spellbinding portmanteau film encompassing five stories in five different taxi cabs during one night. A sparkling cast of scene stealing cameos includes Winona Ryder, Giancarlo Esposito, Armin Mueller-Stahl, Beatrice Dalle and Roberto Benigni, who enlighten a set of perfectly wrought and wittily written little stories set in New York, Los Angeles, Paris, Helsinki and Rome, all tied together by an atmospheric score by the great Tom Waits.
Odd Man Out Time Frames Matinees

Directed by Carol Reed | UK | 1947 | 1hr 51min | (PG)

Set against a backdrop of political unrest in Northern Ireland, Carol Reed’s compelling post-war noir stars James Mason as Irish Revolutionist Johnny McQueen, stranded on the streets of an unnamed Belfast after killing a man in a robbery gone wrong. Working with cinematographer Robert Krasker, with whom he would go on to make The Third Man, Reed conjures a dark and unyielding urban landscape with a diverse cast of characters, as Johnny makes his journey from one end of the city to the other in the course of a night. As Johnny’s evening unravels, the manhunt closes in.

Reservoir Dogs + Rendezvous Time Frames Breakfast Screening
VICTORIA Sat 10 Nov 09:00 | £7/£6
Directed by Quentin Tarantino | USA | 1992 | 1hr 37min + 9min | (18)

Immediately following a disastrous jewellery heist, six colour-coded criminals (‘Mr Blonde’, ‘Mr Pink’ and so on) reconvene at a warehouse for a few hours to talk out the aftermath. Quentin Tarantino’s first film served up a medley of smart international influences - from French New Wave to Hong Kong action cinema - to change U.S. indie cinema in profound and bloody ways. But Reservoir Dogs’ energy - which is lent by a barnstorming ensemble cast - is very much its own. The sheer jolt that Reservoir Dogs gave popular cinema in 1992 was enormous, and is still being felt.

Run Lola Run Time Frames Matinees
BELGRAVE Sat 3 Nov 14:30 | £5
Directed by Tom Twyker | Germany | 1998 | 1hr 20min | (15) | [S]

Tom Tykwer’s iconic and hugely enjoyable film of the late 90s, is an exhilarating race against the clock that plays with time and fate. The film runs through three different versions of the same 20 minutes as Lola tries to get a large sum of money to her boyfriend before he resorts to desperate measures. Infused with the look and narrative logic of video games, Twyker blends the elements of a straightforward action thriller with experimental visual techniques, a relentless techno soundtrack, and an incredible energy that pushes past genre limits.

Squandered Sunday Time Frames Matinees

HYDE PARK Sun 4 Nov 14:00 | £9/£7.50

Directed by Drahomíra Vihanová | Czechoslovakia | 1969 | 1hr 18min | (15) | [S] | 35mm

Banned for many years due to political reasons, Drahomíra Vihanová’s existential debut feature is one of the darkest films to emerge from the Czech New Wave. The film follows disillusioned army officer Arnošt, as he spends a lethargic Sunday after waking up with a hangover. Stuck living on a remote military barracks, Arnošt alleviates his feelings of boredom by drinking or retreating into daydreams and nostalgia. Squandered Sunday is an indelible portrait of a man overcome by the banality of his existence, and a powerful political allegory for Czechoslovakia after the Prague Spring was crushed.

Director Erik Poppe’s breathless single-take re-enactment of the events on the island is told entirely from the desperate perspective of 18-year-old Kaja and her friends as the unknown assassin gets closer and closer. ‘A visceral, brutal, yet heartfelt and earnest movie, which imbues the innocent bewilderment and horror of its young characters.’ (The Guardian)

Even if we are at one with the natural world, is the natural world at one with us? Nature, therefore, sets us a challenge. These films exemplify nature – internal and external - as both constructive and destructive in impulse. We witness two boys sinking into a power game in a surface mine, a deranged infestation haunting the everyday of an adolescent, the conflicted crossroads at the heart of impending manhood and the curious conflation of a vengeful typhoon with the simple joy of karaoke.

Have you ever been tortured by love? These films deal with a messy, obsessive, compulsive engagement with love in all its weird and warped disguises. This kind of love reveals itself through the vicarious appeal of pornography, the frantic and panicked wait for a text message, the lure of nefarious activities, and the taut, tantalising prospect of your very skin being uncovered and exposed in the need for a very base and perverse pleasure.

6 shorts | Austria, France, India, Iran, Italy, Poland, Sweden | 2017 & 2018 | 1hr 23min | (15) | [S]

This unmissable selection of short films takes us on a journey through the underworld of human desire and exploits. Darkness breaks across the landscape in the form of Nazis on the rampage in Sweden; a farmer’s deceptive actions are in danger of being exposed amid the impending harvest; the impending threat of violence lurks on a late night bus journey; the discovery of a corpse in the wilderness; an inexplicable series of inter-family murders and a search through the deepest forest for a very elusive Gabriel.

The passing of time and all of its crimes. This selection of films confronts what we take for granted: time, reality, representation: a young girl struggles to understand her place in the world; a young boy is forced to face up to the silence in his house by realising his tigerish potential; a future Olympic swimmer realises his chosen sport provides the antidote to his self-doubt and a warm afternoon in the sunshine is catapulted into the unknown when a man crashes down from the sky.

LIFF animation programmes have always showcased a heady mix of the most creative, clever and brilliant new short films from across Europe and beyond. Sometimes delicate, sometimes dark, sometimes even disturbing, they are always delightful. Our first programme sets out on a dangerous sea voyage in the darkly beautiful and tragic True North, revels in the violent mayhem of Coyote’s parallel worlds and gets experimental with an inventive mix of live action and animation in Céline Devaux’s wonderful You Will be fine.

This year, we've unearthed another hugely diverse selection of films to fascinate, enthral and tickle the adventurous festival goer. Blow the cobwebs from your brain as our third programme delves into the psyche of a lonely owl in Raymonde or the vertical escape, explores the colourful paper-cut-outery of Food and waves goodbye with the touching Late Afternoon.

Support your local filmmakers and see the best new Yorkshire shorts, which, like the UK's greatest county, covers a wide assortment of interesting characters, varied locations and contrasting styles, to demonstrate the rich diversity and proud individuality of the region. Ranging from the epic, but nightmarish depiction of the Yorkshire Moors in Alone, to the focused, more whimsical view of the district in the perfectly formed documentary Life in Miniature, this programme truly celebrates the county itself, but also the best filmmakers this county has to offer.
